Hatfield Appointed to be 2007/2008 NWPPA Board President

VANCOUVER, WA. – At their 67th Annual Conference and Membership Meeting in Spokane, Wash., Northwest Public Power Association’s (NWPPA) Board of Trustees elected Ron Hatfield to be the 2007/2008 NWPPA Board of Trustees president. Hatfield will serve a one-year term as Board president.

“The Board is great to work with and the staff is second to none,” said Hatfield. “I expect a great year.

Hatfield has been a member of the NWPPA Board of Trustees since 1998. An employee of the City of Raymond for 25 years, Hatfield spent 21 of the years as the city clerk/treasurer before retiring in January 1995. He was then elected and served as the mayor of the City of Raymond in 1996 and 1997. In addition to the NWPPA Board, he also currently serves on the Energy NW Board, the WPUDA legislative committee, and the Pacific County PUD No. 2 Board of Commissioners.
